Ethos

The expectations we have of all students, students and adults at Parrs Wood, with regards to behaviour, are built around our core values of:

respecting oneself
respecting others
respecting the environment.

Our school Mission Statement embraces our belief that if all students behave in a respectful manner then effective learning will take place. Our students will then achieve their academic and social potential allowing them to be successful in their chosen academic and career pathways.

At Parrs Wood, an ethos has been created where effort, success, respectful behaviour and a positive attitude to learning is celebrated and rewarded. Behaviour which is inappropriate, i.e. has a negative impact on safety, wellbeing and/or learning, is not tolerated and sanctions and interventions are imposed to deter and modify these behaviours.

All students and adults, including parents/carers, have a responsibility to ensure that all our students are safe, happy, enjoy a positive and stimulating learning environment, and achieve social and academic success.

Parrs Wood Code Of Conduct

Any student found to be in possession of a weapon will be issued with a fixed period or permanent exclusion from school and in some circumstances the police might also be contacted.

Positive Behaviour Management

At Parrs Wood, we appreciate the importance of developing effective professional working relationships with our students that identify and reward students' good behaviour, effort and achievements.

All adults in the school are expected to model the highest standards in behaviour and professionalism at all times and will utilise a range of strategies that encourage students to do the same.

Rewarding good, effort and behaviour and achievements is a priority at Parrs Wood as we recognise how using positive behaviour management can strengthen relationships and contribute to a positive learning environment.

Highlighted below is a list of ways we can acknowledge and reward students for positive behaviour and good attitude to learning.

'Steps' Model for Rewards

- 1) Non-verbal praise (e.g a nod, smile, thumbs up)
- 2) Verbal/Written praise/Gold and Platinum Awards - See explanation below.
- 3) 'Lesson Star of the Day' - For each lesson, the teacher should identify a 'star' for that lesson. This can be followed up with a Platinum Award, Gold Slips, Post-Cards or a telephone call home. Each lesson, the teacher is encouraged to award 5 Gold Awards and 1 Platinum Award.
- 4) Praise letter/Post-Card home - See explanation below.
- 5) Praise phone call - Teachers and support staff will recognise significant improvement in behaviour or continued excellence in academic progress with a phone call to parents/carers to ensure that communication with home is not only instigated by inappropriate behaviour and inadequate academic progress.
- 6) 'Faculty Star of the Week' - Each week, faculties will nominate a 'star of the week' who will meet for breakfast with the Headteacher, or Deputy Headteacher in his absence, to be personally congratulated for their achievements. A photograph of the 'Faculty Stars of the Week' will be published on the school's website and sent home, accompanied by a letter of congratulations from the Headteacher.

- 7) Weekly Assemblies – Every week during year group assemblies, tutor groups with the best attendance and most rewards will be celebrated. A lottery will also take place where the randomly selected student will have to demonstrate that they have full equipment, a school planner and have not received any poor behaviour logs. If successful, then the student will be awarded with two Cinema Vouchers.
- 8) Termly Celebration Assemblies – At the end of each term, Heads of Learning lead the celebration of the year group's achievements for that term with a Celebration Assembly. Certificates, Awards and Prizes are awarded for excellent progress, behaviour, attainment, attendance and citizenship.
- 9) Rewards and Activities Week – To minimise disruption to learning but to celebrate and reward the achievements of our students, the school plans all rewards visits, excursions and activities during the last week of term. Where possible, trips that are not planned during school holidays will also take place during that time.
- 10) 'Parrs Wood High School Awards Evening' - We celebrate the achievements of Year 13 and Year 11 students at our Annual Awards Evening, which takes place during the Autumn Term. Faculties also nominate students to be awarded prizes for Academic Excellence and Sustained Effort from years 7, 8 and 9. Other categories for recognition on the evening include Sports Awards, Outstanding Achievement, Academic Dedication, Contribution to School Life and Contribution to the Community.

Gold and Platinum Awards – Each teacher has access to our online data management system where they can record Gold and Platinum rewards for good progress, attitude to learning or attainment within the classroom. The Protocols of Positive Pedagogy

All staff at Parrs Wood High School understand the importance of providing a disciplined learning environment which allows all students to develop academically and socially in preparation for transition to further learning pathways or employment and to become an active and responsible member of the local and wider community.

It is recognised that there will be occasions where students will behave in a manner which will require the member of staff to challenge, offer guidance and support, and issue appropriate sanctions. During these occasions, staff will follow the following protocols:

- Minimise embarrassment for the student
- Avoid arguing with the student
- Maintain calmness and a sense of humour
- Be consistent
- Ensure that there is a 'follow-up' which is appropriate to the situation
- Remember the need to allow the student to have 'time-out time'
- Utilise wide support where necessary
- Record the incident on SIMS, the School's Data Management System and keep parents/carers informed, where there are significant behavioural concerns

Classroom Protocols

- Classroom procedures are expected to be consistent such as lesson planning and structure, seating plans, listening expectations, answering protocols, etc.
- Teachers are expected to welcome students at the door
- Teachers are expected to differentiate activities where appropriate
- Teachers are expected to keep rules to a minimum and make them explicit
- Have clear rationale about rules
- Build self-esteem of students when the opportunity arises
- Catch students being good and praise them for positive behaviour

Behaviour and discipline in schools - Advice for headteachers and school staff - February 2014

Discipline in schools – teachers’ powers

Key Points

- Teachers have statutory authority to discipline students whose behaviour is unacceptable, who break the school rules or who fail to follow a reasonable instruction (Section 90 and 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006).
- The power also applies to all paid staff with responsibility for students, such as Teaching Assistants.
- Teachers can discipline students at any time the student is in school or elsewhere under the charge of a teacher, including on school visits.
- Teachers can also discipline students in certain circumstances when a student’s misbehaviour occurs outside of school.
- Teachers have a power to impose detention outside school hours.
- Teachers can confiscate students’ property.

‘Steps’ Model for the Management of Students’ Behaviour

1. Non-Verbal - e.g making eye-contact, body language, facial expression.
2. Tactically Ignoring - where the health, safety and learning of others is not at risk, one may choose to ignore a student’s ‘attention seeking behaviour’ or ‘immediate instinctive response’ at being challenged about their behaviour.
3. Simple Direction - directing a student to recognise how they are affecting their own learning and the learning of others, explaining your expectations and getting them back on task.
4. Rule Reminder – reminding the student of your expectations with regards to behaviour and progress.
5. Simple Choice – explaining to the student that they have a choice to either improve their behaviour and attitude to learning or be given a sanction.
6. Follow Through – to follow through with the sanction as described when the student was given a choice to address behaviour concern.
7. Exit – the student is requested to leave the classroom/learning area. This must be a managed move where the student goes to a pre-determined colleague within the faculty or a colleague is called upon from the senior team or security team.
8. Conferencing – this is a planned meeting where the student meets with the member of staff directly involved. This may include a parent/carer and another member of staff, usually a colleague with a leadership responsibility, who will facilitate the meeting following Restorative Justice protocol.

Behaviour Management Support Systems

The school pastoral system provides help and advice both to individuals and to groups to regulate behaviour. We have a highly experienced team Heads of Learning who lead the form tutors in the day to day pastoral care of our students. The appropriate Head of Learning would usually be the first point of contact should a parent wish to raise any issue or concern. In addition:

- The Parent Support Officer provides specialised advice and support to individual students and families.
- The Inclusion Room and Student Support Centre provides support for students to improve behaviour and learning.
- The support provided by the Special Educational Needs Department is designed to motivate students in their learning which in turn improves behaviour.
- Student Support Managers (PSMs). The school has five PSMs who support students in their school life and address behavioural issues when they arise.
- The school will engage the support and advice of agencies of the Local Authority to address behaviour problems when needed.

Parrs Wood use a levelled approach to behaviour sanctions and support

Student Support Managers (PSMs)

Student Support Managers have an active role in maintaining good discipline within school. Their responsibilities include supporting students to overcome barriers to learning, maintaining good order and discipline around the school, recognising and rewarding positive behaviour, visiting lessons to support students, teaching and support staff where necessary, and having a high profile and presence around the building.

Faculty Referral Rooms

This is an 'in-house' facility whereby students who are disrupting a lesson may be removed for a period of time. This gives them the opportunity to reflect on their behaviour and reduces the disruption to other students.

Inclusion Classroom

The Inclusion Classroom provides curriculum and social support for students to assist them to overcome personal barriers to learning. Students can be guided towards this provision where a student's personal situation will not allow them to access their complete range of subject areas, and where their academic and future interests and success would be best served by an adaptation to their school timetable. This provision is negotiated with the student, their parents/carers and the Head of Learning.

PSC (Student Support Centre)

The Student Support Centre provides an on-site facility for students to engage in curriculum related learning whilst having the opportunity to reflect on their behaviour following an incident which the school regards as inappropriate. The PSC demonstrates the school's commitment in supporting the student to reflect and modify behaviour that could otherwise be sanctioned by a fixed-term external exclusion.

Return to Learn

The Return to Learn classroom is a supportive environment which aims to give students a space to reflect and resolve any issues which are a barrier to their learning. The facility aims to get students back to lessons within twenty four hours of initially being placed in the room.

Synergy Centre

The Synergy Centre provision recognises that, for some students, a traditional school day presents a significant challenge, and a more tailor-made educational package is required to engage, motivate and allow the students to build confidence and succeed. Students who are in the Synergy Centre will not access the main school site. The Synergy Centre will work with students until they can either partially or fully re-engage with mainstream provision.

Individual Behaviour Plan– In partnership with the student and their parent/carer, the Head of Learning will construct a support package which will identify key areas for development, strategies and systems to support the student and their family, and which has clear success criteria and an agreed monitoring and evaluation cycle, to assist the student overcome any barriers to learning. In addition, teachers are provided with IEPs from the SEN department for those students who are Statemented, have EHC Plans or are on SEN Support for behaviour issues.

Restorative Justice YOT Referral – Where a student’s behavioural concerns are affected by, or are having an impact on their life in the community, the school may wish to involve the support of a Restorative Justice Youth Offending Team Support Worker to provide external structured support and guidance to the student and their family.

Area Case Panel Meeting – Where a student’s behaviour is affected by both internal and external factors and requires a multi-agency support approach, an area case panel meeting will be held consisting of all stakeholders and supporting agencies that hold a vested interest in the particular student’s education. A support package will be agreed for the student and follow-up meetings will be planned to monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of the intervention provided.

Education Health and Care Plan (EHCP) Where a student needs a more intensive level of specialist help that cannot be met from the resources available, the school may consider asking the Local Authority for an Education Health and Care (EHC) needs assessment. This assessment could lead to the student getting an EHC Plan. This brings the student's education, health and social care needs into a single, legal document. The student must have special educational needs to be eligible for a plan.

Behaviour Panel Meetings

Where a student’s behaviour is either deteriorating, or not showing any signs of improvement, regardless of several interventions, the school may decide that the student and their parent/carer should attend a Behaviour Panel Meeting. At this meeting, the student’s behaviour will be presented to both the student and their parent by the panel, the interventions and sanctions discussed, and any impact of those interventions and sanctions. Expectations for behaviour will be articulated and a plan will be agreed, with clear targets for improvement, appropriate support mechanisms and a time to review the student’s progress in meeting their targets. The Behaviour Panel Meetings will escalate in seriousness should improvements not be realised by the student, the most serious being a meeting where the panel will consist of the Headteacher and representation from The Governing Body of the school.

Staff Duties

To ensure that students are safe, staff are allocated duty positions at break, lunch and the end of a school day. Radios are used to allow fast communication throughout our large site.

Planner

The student planner contains the basic expectations and rules. There is a Home School Agreement to which the parents sign up to (this can be referenced in the Appendix of this document). This is based on the core values. The planner is used to communicate with parents when there may be a concern about a student’s behaviour/attitude. It is also used to collate rewards.

Behaviour Support through Sharing Good Practice – To develop relationships and behaviour management strategies to meet the needs of learners, Parrs Wood has adopted a simple system to share both knowledge and techniques to build relationships and positively manage student behaviour.

Classes Causing Concern – To provide additional support with classes where particular student's behaviour is having a negative impact on learning, a 'classes for concern' record is kept that prompts lesson visits by Faculty Leaders, Subject Leaders, Student Support Managers, Heads of Learning and/or members of the Senior Leadership Team.

Student Voice Council

The Student Voice Council is an important forum for students to have a voice with regards to school systems, environment, learning, teaching, extra-curricular activities, safety, behaviour rewards and sanctions. The Student Voice Council has representation from all year groups and meets formally at least once a term with the Headteacher. A Senior Student Leadership Team also exists consisting of the Head Girl, Head Boy and a team of other senior leaders. The consultation of students is an important recent duty which reflects studentren's rights under Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Student. It will also help us to meet the National Healthy School's Standard criteria on allowing studentren a voice in matters that affect them.

- It is our policy to involve students in the appointment of new teaching staff.
- We aim to seek student opinion from whole year groups from time to time over both pastoral and academic issues.
- We organise the election every year of Form Representatives, Year Representatives and the Senior Student Leadership Team to reflect Student Voice.
- Year Representatives are chosen to become part of the School Council.
- It is our policy to consult with our student body over significant issues.

Parents/Carers

We firmly believe that consultation with parents is important. We will seek the views of our parents/ guardians at regular intervals. We aim to ask, by means of questionnaires, the opinions of our parents/guardians on how effective they think we are in a range of critical areas. The Senior Leadership Team will carefully evaluate the responses and if appropriate, steps will be taken to ensure that our standards remain at optimum levels. We will feedback to to parents / carers to inform them of developments which are directly related to their comments.

Local Partners

We have an excellent relationship with a wide range of partners. Within Manchester there are regular meetings between the Headteachers in all of the secondary schools. These partnerships enable good practice to be shared from school to school in a spirit of collaboration.

It is our policy to refer students whenever appropriate to CAMHS and other health agencies via our school nurse, in order to provide specialist help for individual students and their families.

We make full use of the local emergency services in providing input into our PSHE programme.

Behaviour Management – Sanctions

On those occasions where student behaviour contradicts the school's core values of

respecting oneself
respecting others
respecting the environment

Parrs Wood has a range of sanctions that will be enforced to provide the student with an opportunity to reflect on their behaviour and to act as a deterrent for future misdemeanors.

They are:

- A verbal reprimand.
- Apology to member of staff/student - verbal or written.
- Relocate to another classroom - temporary relocation to a faculty 'referral room'.
- Phone call home.
- Letter home.
- Detention including during lunch-time, after school and at weekends.

Late Detentions – Students arriving late to school, after 8.35am, but before 9am will be issued with a same day break time detention. Students who arrive after 9am will have a same day break and lunchtime detention.

Failure to attend the detention will result in the student's parent/carer having to contact the school, either in person or by telephone, the next morning (or on Monday morning where a Friday detention has been missed) to explain their son's/daughter's reason for not following school rules.

Where this communication has not been made by the parent/carer with the school and/or a satisfactory reason for non-attendance to detention has been accepted by the school, then the student will be placed in internal isolation (which can include the Student Support Centre) and will also have to repeat the detention.

Repeated failure to attend Late Detentions will result in the sanction being escalated with the student also being placed in a Super Detention which takes place Friday after school.

Important: The Education Act 2011 removed the requirement for schools to have to provide notice to parents for a detention.

- Regular reporting including early morning reporting; scheduled uniform and other behaviour checks; or being placed “on report” for academic progress and/or behaviour monitoring.
- Extra work or repeating unsatisfactory work until it meets the required standard.
- Loss of privileges – for instance the loss of break-time and lunch-time with their peers, not being able to participate in a non-uniform day, represent the school in individual or team sports, or watch the Staff Show at Christmas etc.
- School based community service or imposition of a task e.g. picking up litter, tidying a classroom, helping to clear up the dining hall after meal times, removing graffiti etc.
- Conferencing – This allows all parties involved in an incident to be able to articulate their feelings and version of events in a safe and supportive environment, with the agreed goal of building respectful and sustainable working relationships.
- Student & Parent/Carer Meeting – In addition to contact being made with parents/carers via telephone, e-mail, planner and/or letter, it may be decided that a face-to-face meeting is needed to articulate behaviour/attendance concerns, strategies already adopted and the relative impact of those strategies, and to agree an action plan to further support the student.
- Referral to the Student Support Centre – Students will work as part of a small group, or individually, in isolation from their peers, on curriculum based work. Contact will be made to parents to inform them that their student has received this sanction.
- Saturday School – students who are found to have tranted will be required to attend school in full uniform on a Saturday morning. Students will complete a truancy booklet and any work they have missed whilst tranting.
- Referral for Fixed-Term External Exclusion - External exclusions are subject to the guidance provided by the Local Authority.
- Referral to Parrs Wood’s Synergy Centre or an alternative ‘Off-site’ Education Provider, including placements at one of our partner secondary schools.
- Referral for a managed move to another school. Managed moves have been recognised by Manchester Local Authority as a strategy to allow students, who are at risk of disengagement or permanent exclusion, the opportunity to experience education at another school. This process can only be instigated through agreement with the parent, Parrs Wood High School and the placement school. Placements are reviewed after 8-12 weeks and a decision is then made to either extend the placement, make the transfer permanent or to cease the placement so that the student returns to Parrs Wood.
- Referral for a permanent exclusion.

Bullying

“Bullying is a form of intimidation in which a more dominant individual abuses the power he or she has over a less dominant individual. More than one bully and more than one victim may be involved in a bullying incident”. “Bullying in Schools” – Cleveland

Bullying can be:

- physical - from deliberate pushing and jostling to assault. It can also involve theft or damage to the victim’s property.
- Verbal - this often takes the form of name-calling, which can be face to face or by mobile phone calls, texts or e-mails.
- a one-off incident or a sustained campaign.
- by individuals or by groups. Members of groups can become bullies to be accepted by group members.
- amongst adults also.

Bullying Prevention:

- As bullying is a serious breach of the school's standards of behaviour we will maintain a constant focus and vigilance towards this issue through regular references to it in Assemblies (The role of the bystander will be a focus of Assemblies at least once a year in each year group), Tutor Time, Lessons (Opportunities will be provided in the curriculum to define and discuss acceptable behaviour and encourage coping mechanisms), Enrichment Activities, Staff Briefings and Training, the Parents' Bulletin and Prospectus.
- Advice and help to parents through parental communications.
- Teachers will take every opportunity to reassure students and staff that the school cares about their welfare, is not tolerant of bullying, is rigorous in dealing with bullying and is committed to eradicating bullying.
- Students are encouraged to report in confidence any instances of bullying that they either are victims of or aware of involving others. The school promotes an online confidential bullying reporting system which is promoted to students (SHARP system).

Staff will:

- encourage self-confidence and assertiveness.
- encourage a supportive and caring attitude amongst students.
- encourage students to talk to someone when bullying occurs.
- take all reports of bullying seriously, act as quickly as possible, reassure the victim, give support and advice, ensure the "bully" is aware of disapproval, involve parents as necessary, ensure both the victim and "bully" are supported after the incident to ensure that the victim feels safe and supported, and that the "bully" is sanctioned appropriately and educated to modify behaviour so that it never happens again.

Behaviour in Parrs Wood Sixth Form

Sixth Form behaviour protocols are based on the school protocols but are designed to reflect the growing maturity of Sixth Form students and their greater freedom and responsibility in comparison to the rest of the school. Schools with a sixth form must follow DfE's statutory guidance on behaviour and exclusions as they would for students in the main school.

Common areas of misbehaviour in the sixth form:

- Poor attendance to lessons, including lateness and truancy
- Poor attendance to assembly
- Poor attendance to form time
- Failure to meet deadlines: homework and coursework

Responsibility for dealing with poor behaviour lies first and foremost with subject teachers. They must make sixth form expectations clear and set out exactly how they are not being met. Conversations about misbehaviour must be conducted and end in a resolution on the student's behalf regarding future conduct. Repeat poor behaviour, or a serious situation must be reported to parents either over the telephone, email or letter.

Complaints Procedure

Any person(s) wishing to raise a complaint should follow the process as presented in the schools complaints policy. This may be located on the school website – 'about us' – 'policies' – 'complaints policy'.
